ABOUT David T. De Celis:

David earned his B-Arch from the Univ. of Miami's School of Architecture in 1994, with a Minor in Theater Arts. Soon after, he attended Harvard's Graduate School of Design. He received his M-Arch from Harvard in 1998, and started working with architecture firms in Boston and Cambridge, most notably Kallmann, McKinnell & Wood, and Bruner/Cott. In 1997 he established DCM Design in Cambridge, MA. Most recently, David established a new professional partnership, DCVL Design, with his former student Amy Van Lauwe. David has been a member of the PAC since the spring of 2013.
